has high-quality beaches, golf courses where renowned championships are played, world-class equestrian infrastructures and an internationally awarded marina that allows the practice of water sports. Vilamoura offers a tranquil lifestyle, in tune with the mild climate of the Algarve.

During the day there are countless activities to practice. Tennis, horse riding, sailing, windsurfing, jet-skiing, parasailing, boat trips, sport fishing, the panoply is very varied, the difficult thing will be to choose Vilamoura is the largest tourist resort in Europe, with hotels, tourist villages, luxury villas and apartments and offers an excellent choice of commercial and leisure facilities. All the requirements of a residential area are also assured, including an international school, a church, post office and medical clinics.

Modern, lively and sophisticated, Vilamoura developed around the marina and is now one of the largest leisure resorts in Europe.

Great investment opportunity, whether for living or for holidays.
